

letters

Centerfold Payoff

Darn you and your fancy centerfold! I hung it on my bookcase so I see it every time I glance up . . . and now I'm even taking the time to drop you a note to say thanks for a great issue of the Journal. The ideas in the theme issue on Time Management are helping me, and should be useful to many of us in Extension. Keep on keeping on

EDDIE AMEND
University of Wyoming—Laramie

Your September-October issue of the Journal prompted me to make time to commend the editor. This is without a doubt the best issue that has ever been written. (I read it "from kiver to kiver" nonstop!).

At last you have reached your goal of communicating with everybody, not just researcher with researcher. It was easy, enjoyable reading that said a lot. I have a feeling that this issue will spruce up the professional attitudes of many Extension folks.

Personally, I needed a shot in the arm, and I've heard nothing but praise for it from my co-workers. Bet you get a ton of mail on this one!

Congratulations to you and your staff on a real journal of Extension. Let's have more!

JEAN R. REEVES
*TV Editor and Training Officer
Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service
Mississippi State, Mississippi*

I want to congratulate you on the most recent issue of the Journal of Extension on Time Management. You have done an excellent job of putting together a very informative grouping of articles on this important topic. There is no question that this is one of the areas in which most all Extension professionals could use a lot of help.

JOHN T. PELHAM
*State 4-H and Youth Leader
Texas A & M University—College Station*